YOUR legacy GIFT

A powerful way to reach the unreached and teach the untaught

Invest in discipling the Church of tomorrow - remember DPM in your will

GOD GAVE DEREK THIS VISION FOR THE MINISTRY:

"It is my desire, and I believe the Lord's desire, that DPM should be a ministry that continues the work started through me over 60 years ago, until Jesus returns." Derek Prince, July 2002

"It shall be like a little stream, And the little stream shall become a river, And the river shall become a great river, The great river shall become a sea, And the sea shall become a mighty ocean."

Given to Derek by the Lord in 1941

About Derek Prince Ministries

Derek Prince Ministries (DPM) is an international ministry with over 45 national and outreach offices in different parts of the world. DPM was originally established in the USA in 1971 and exists to make disciples of Jesus Christ through the Bible teaching of the late Derek Prince.

"Our mission is to make Derek's teaching available to spiritually hungry Christians through books, audio visual resources and websites in over 100 languages - especially in countries where there is persecution and poverty."

Every year hundreds of thousands of new and mature Christians experience victory, freedom and peace through Derek's teaching. Testimonies we receive from believers in the UK and other parts of the world show how God is continuing to use Derek Prince's teaching to impact lives and enable people to experience the fullness of His blessings .

Through our outreach initiatives supported by individuals like you, and churches like yours, we are combating spiritual hunger around the world by providing discipleship resources for believers, pastors and Bible college students who are seeking to gain a better understanding of God's Word and to grow spiritually.

It is always wonderful to know that we have friends like you who share our vision for making Derek Prince's Bible teaching freely available to spiritually hungry Christians worldwide. Legacy gifts are crucial to the fulfilment of our mission.

These strategic gifts can enable us to translate Derek's teaching in new languages and to reach new generations of Christians in the digital world.

Through effective use of legacy gifts, we can make a deep and lasting impact in the lives of many church leaders, Bible college students and believers from all walks of life.

When I speak to pastors or believers in the UK and abroad, I am deeply moved by their testimonies of how Derek's teaching has blessed and helped them to minister to others.

That is why I am very grateful for loyal supporters like you – who are committed to ensuring that new and mature believers - wherever they are, have access to life transforming Bible teaching in their own language.

So, thank you once again for your interest in including a gift to DPM in your will.

I hope this brochure offers you the information and motivation you need to help DPM to reach the unreached and teach the untaught in the years and decades to come.

Yours in His service,

Neil Cornick
UK Director

Why include DPM in your will?

The gifts you make to DPM during your lifetime are invaluable. They are enabling Christians in over 150 countries to dig deeper into God's Word and to disciple countless others. But the question is: who will be there for the believers, pastors and evangelists of the future?

You can leave a legacy that will impact thousands of lives.

DPM does not receive any government funding. We depend entirely on the generosity of individuals, churches and Christian grant-making trusts. By including a gift to DPM in your will, you can ensure that Derek's teaching is freely available to new generations of believers in the years to come.

Whatever the size of your legacy gift, in our hands, it will go a long way.

Your legacy gift could help provide a wide range of printed and digital discipleship resources for growing churches in China, for Bible college students in Africa or India, for persecuted Christians in the Middle East or for prisoners and former drug addicts in the former Soviet Republics.

But, most importantly, your legacy gift can help thousands of Christians to unlock the life-changing power of God's Word into their lives and the lives of their communities and their nations!

This simple brochure explains why your legacy is important, how it could be used and what can you do to include DPM in your will. However, if you do need further information please don't hesitate to call Neil Cornick on: 01462 492100 to discuss this in more detail.

Equipping Christians for ministry & mission

Sue Lin came across Derek Prince's teaching in 1996, that's over 24 years ago. She was a new Christian then and Derek's book Blessing or Curse: You Can Choose was the first Christian book she read. Through this book God touched her heart and changed her life.

Over the years Sue Lin kept Derek's books beside her Bible and used them to draw encouragement and strength from God's Word.

But she did not keep what she learnt to herself. As a leader of a small Bible group she invited her friends to study the Bible using Derek's Foundational Truths for Christian Living. Over the years they also read and discussed other books including The Marriage Covenant, Shaping History Through Prayer and Fasting and God's Approved Workers.

Often the Bible study group members took copies of Derek's materials to share with their friends and family members and new believers were added to the church.

A legacy gift could enable us to continue to make Derek's foundational Bible teaching available to more believers like Sue Lin so they can draw closer to the Lord and disciple others.

How your legacy gift could be used

Discipling persecuted Christians

In Revelation 22:16, Jesus reminds us that His light shines bright in the darkest of times and in the hardest places. This is such a wonderful picture of God's love and a powerful promise He makes to those, in the Middle East today, who are being persecuted for their faith.

God is using our DPM outreach to ensure that the light of Jesus shines brightly in the lives of thousands of Christians like Pastor Asif all over the Middle East.

Pastor Asif runs an underground church in Iran and is desperate for good Bible teaching and spiritual encouragement. Our DPM workers in a neighbouring country are reaching out to Iranian pastors like him by inviting them to a week of training in God's Word and fellowship using Derek's materials.

Pastor Asif was greatly blessed by Derek's teaching and his eyes were filled with tears when our worker gave him a SD card filled with more of Derek's essential teaching that could help his church community to grow strong in their faith in the years to come.

A legacy gift to DPM could ensure that more precious Bible teaching resources find their way to the fellowships and hearts of persecuted Christians —making the light of Jesus shine bright in places of spiritual darkness.

Encouraging Christians worldwide to pray for Israel

Talking about the importance of making teaching about Israel available to Christians worldwide our Outreach Coordinator for Eastern Europe Branislav Čekan said: 'During the 25 years of my Christian walk I haven't heard much preaching or teaching on the subject of "Israel", "Jewish celebrations", "Jewish roots" etc.

Many Christians in Eastern Europe and elsewhere today would benefit from reading and hearing what Derek Prince taught about Israel. It will help them to see the connection between Jesus' second coming and the re-gathering of the Jews in Israel.

Also this teaching can address the deadly cancer of antisemitism that is spreading through many European countries with the rise of nationalistic movements that aim to twist the historical records of the Holocaust.

Many Christians don't see how deadly this is. So hopefully this teaching will wake them up and inspire them to love Israel and to pray for its people.'

By remembering DPM in your will you can ensure that we continue to make Derek's teaching about Israel freely available in different languages so Christians in Eastern Europe and elsewhere can be inspired to pray effectively for Israel.

Setting prisoners free spiritually using God's Word

Since 1995, thanks to the generosity of supporters like you, thousands of inmates in UK prisons and detention centres have been challenged and blessed by Derek's Bible teaching made available to them through our ministry of Inside Outreach.

Recently we expanded this ministry by sending out a new resource guide to chaplains and prisoners containing a larger range of free Bible teaching resources.

Another welcome addition to our Inside Outreach activities is the provision of Derek's materials in foreign languages including Farsi, Arabic, Turkish, French and Russian for prisoners in the UK whose first language is not English.

Our hope and prayer is that God will use Derek's teaching to strengthen the faith of Christian inmates and to open the spiritual eyes of those who need the love, healing and forgiveness only He can offer.

A legacy gift can ensure that we continue to make Derek's teaching available to chaplains and believers in removal centres and prisons across the UK sharing the message of God's love and forgiveness with many who desperately need to hear it.

How to include DPM in your will

If you are considering including a gift to DPM in your will, you should speak to your solicitor who can advise you about the right procedure and the benefits of different ways of including a charity in your will.

Here are some types of legacy gift you can leave:

A share of your estate. After you have provided for your loved ones, you can leave a share of what remains to charity. You can specify a percentage or share of your estate. This is known as a 'residuary gift'.

A cash gift. This is when you leave a specific sum of money to a charity. This is known as a 'pecuniary gift'.

A specific gift. If you wish to leave a certain valuable item to DPM you should consider adding it to your will as a specific legacy gift.

A gift in trust. You can leave a gift such as your home for someone to use until they reach a certain age, or for life. It can then be donated to other recipients, such as a charity.

At DPM we appreciate every legacy gift, regardless of size, and our promise to you is that we will honour your commitment to our work by being effective stewards of your contribution.

What to do next

- If you have already written your will and wish to include a charitable gift to DPM, you can speak to your solicitor. Or you can complete and sign the fully legal codicil form included in this pack and send it to your solicitor to keep alongside your original will.
- If you have not yet made a will, may we suggest that you speak to a solicitor in your area.
- If you have already included DPM in your will, or intend to, then you may choose to let us know so we can communicate with you in the best way.
- If you would like to talk to someone about leaving a legacy gift to DPM, then please call Neil Cornick in the strictest confidence on 01462 492100.
- To leave a legacy gift to DPM, you will need to use these charity details when wording your will: Derek Prince Ministries (UK), Lytchett House, 13 Freeland Park, Wareham Road, Poole, Dorset, BH16 6FA / A registered charitable incorporated organisation in England No. 1123283

Thank you!

What will your legacy be?

In the words of Colin Dye, Senior Minister at Kensington Temple, “Derek Prince ministered the Word of God as no other Bible teacher of our generation. His Bible insights and his deep commitment to the Holy Spirit has left us a deep and lasting legacy.”

Including a gift to DPM in your will is a wonderful way to invest in God’s Kingdom.

Your legacy gift can help make certain that our ministry will be there for future generations of believers, pastors and students in the UK and across the globe.

If you have been blessed through the work of Derek Prince Ministries, act now to ensure that others are also blessed in the future.

You too can leave a lasting legacy.
