

In the Father's Arms

Declaring God's Word (Day 166)
by Derek Prince

Picture a little child held securely by his father's arm, with his face pressed against the father's shoulder. There may be great confusion and distress all around. The world may seem to be falling apart. But the little child is totally at peace, not at all concerned by the events taking place around him. He is secure in his father's arms.

We, too, are held securely by our Father. Jesus has assured us that our Father is greater than all who may surround us and that no one is able to snatch us out of His hand.

Jesus also gave this assurance to His disciples:

> "Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom" (Luke 12:32)

We may be just a little flock, surrounded by wild beasts of all kinds. But if our Father has committed Himself to giving us the kingdom, no power in the universe can withhold it from us.

Devotional

Transcript: WD-B097-166-ENG
Last Updated: 14 Jan 2026
Website: derekprince.com/en/resources

“Our basic problem as human beings is that we do not realise how valuable we are.”
Derek Prince
derekprince.com/en/resources
Cut here to use as a bookmark